HTML Tutorial

Page 4/10

Now let's add a paragraph of text below the h1 heading. Perhaps "Welcome to my website" or your favorite quote.

To make a paragraph, surround your text with the \<p\> tag. So it should look something like

\<p\>Welcome!\</p\>

What do I put on my website?

With HTML, you can make the exact website that you want to make, free from the limits of social networks. It could be a personal page or it could be totally anonymous! You could write about your interests, share artwork, or post photos. You'll learn about adding links and images soon.
